LEWIS WITHDRAWS

Resignation in Hands of Washington Party State Committee

TO UNITE VOTERS

Against Reign of Penroseism—Candidate Declares He Acts Without Any Agreement with Democrats.

William Draper Lewis, Washington party nominee for Governor, announced Wednesday night that in order to give the anti-Penrose voters of the State an opportunity to unite upon one candidate for Governor, he would place his resignation in the hands of the Washington party State Committee.

This announcement came at the end of an all-day conference in Philadelphia of representative Washington party men from various sections of the State.

Doctor Lewis declared in his statement that his action was not in any way the result of a fusion agreement with the Democrats, but was inspired solely by the conviction that the opponents of the Penrose style of State government should have the opportunity to stand united behind one anti-Penrose gubernatorial candidate. His statement was as follows: "The conference held today at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel of the leaders of the Washington party from different sections of the State, especially the eastern section, was called at my request.

"I accepted the nomination of the Washington party for Governor to help break the control of the corrupt Penrose organization on the State government and to help the people place on our statute books a local option law and such progressive legislation as the child labor bill, the workmen's compensation bill and the corrupt practices act.

"The campaign had hardly begun before it became clear that the liquor interests, the exploiters of women and child labor and the opponents of good election laws are as solidly behind Doctor Brumbaugh, the candidate of the Vares, the McNichols and the Crows, as they are behind Senator Penrose. They know that his election perpetuate their grip upon the government of this State.

"On the other hand, Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is, as I am, fighting to redeem this State from Penroseism. He stands for the principal progressive measures defeated by the Senate in the 1913 Legislature. He is an advocate of the initiative and referendum. His sincere interest in the passage of a local option bill is not doubted by any one. He will not only sign such a bill if passed by the Legislature, but the people know he will work unceasingly for its adoption.

"I have come to believe that a contest between Mr. McCormick and myself for the Governorship is most unfortunate. The forces making for evil are united; those making for righteousness should not be divided. It is the fervent wish of great multitudes of people of all classes and conditions to end the kind of government at Harrisburg which has given us Bigelow and Bigelowism. They should have one candidate, and not two, representing the same ideas and ideals of good State government. The task of freeing this State from evil moral influences is too big and vital to allow personal or partisan ambition to interfere with its consummation.

"Conference favors fusion. I placed all these considerations at length before the conference, which was representative of the Washington party of the State. After an exhaustive discussion, in which every shade of opinion was given full liberty of expression, the overwhelming sentiment of the conference was that the forces making for the political and moral redemption of the State should be united behind one candidate. In order that this result may be accomplished, I shall send to the State Committee of the Washington party my resignation as its candidate for Governor.

"If my resignation shall be accepted and Mr. McCormick takes my place as candidate of the Washington party, I shall labor just as hard for his election as I would have done for my own. Thus united, the forces desiring clean, honest, responsible government will win a great victory. "I want it to be distinctly understood that my decision is not the result of any agreement with the Democrats in respect to the other places on the ticket. The sentiment of the conference was strongly in favor of my taking this action without any reference to any action which may be taken by any other party."

The conference began at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and lasted until late in the afternoon. When Doctor Lewis made his broad-gauge statement of his willingness to withdraw so that all anti-Penrose voters, regardless of party, might unite on one candidate for the Governorship to crush the Penrose machine, he was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

At the conclusion of the conference Doctor Lewis was surrounded and cordially congratulated on the patriotic stand he had taken to unite the forces that are fighting to free the State of the blight of Penroseism.

GREAT BIG THING COMING

Commencing with the next issue of The Gazette one of the greatest propositions that has ever been launched by any newspaper in this or any other county in the State will be begun by the Bedford Gazette. It will stir the old county from one end to the other. It is something that will attract the attention of thousands, and will interest people in all walks of life. That it will stimulate business to a greater degree, there can be no question. That it will bring to the attention of thousands the merchants and their wares we have no hesitancy in saying. It is something that will captivate the attention of lawyers, bankers, preachers, doctors, farmers, mill men, school teachers, railroaders, business men, mothers and fathers of the old time school, pupils of the grammar grade and high schools, domestics, and all other classes.

The fact of the matter is this: The Gazette is going to take thousands on a real hunting expedition, and it will be a hunt for real game, too. You all know there is something exciting about a hunt, well this will lack none of those very interesting features, but will embrace everything connected with a "real hunt." We will all be gone about three months, so get down your hunting togs, and "ye ole" gun, brush it up a little then you'll be ready. We would like to go into details and tell you just exactly what we are trying to get at, but space and time in this issue forbids this. But in next week's paper all of the details will be set forth, when the proposition will be launched. Whatever you do be sure you do not miss next week's paper, if you do you will never forgive yourself. So be on the lookout.

Hon. Joseph T. Alsip

Hon. Joseph Taylor Alsip, proprietor of the Arandale Hotel, Bedford, died suddenly Monday evening while sitting in a chair at his home. He had been in ill health for some time, but was able to be about, and attended to the duties connected with the hotel. He was born in Schellsburg March 11, 1846, and was a son of the late John Alsip, who was Sheriff of Bedford County a number of years ago. Mr. Alsip was educated in the public schools, Bedford Academy and Duff's Commercial College, Pittsburgh. He served as clerk in the Pennsylvania Railroad office at Middletown; has been proprietor of the Arandale Hotel for about forty years; was manager of the Bedford Springs Hotel five years and served two terms in the Legislature.

In 1868 he was married to Miss DeLola Smith, who, with one daughter, Mrs. Alvin L. Little, survives. He is also survived by four sisters: Mrs. Julia Spang and Mrs. George Purcell of Bedford, Mrs. A. L. Yocum of Edgewood and Mrs. H. C. Nyum of Wilkinsburg.

Funeral services were held at the Arandale Hotel yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. H. B. Wicand, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Bedford, and Dr. L. M. Colfelt of Philadelphia. Interment was made in the Bedford Cemetery.

Social Time

First annual call of the Royal Circle of the M. W. and E. held their first annual meeting at the White Sulphur Springs on Wednesday, September 9. The balance of the day was spent in pleasure in and around the hotel. One painful accident happened to Princess Mrs. John Clark, who sprained her ankle. First aid to the princess was given by Princess Mrs. Charles Martin. Princess Clark bore her suffering bravely and was presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers gathered from the fields by her loving princesses. Resolution was passed to hold the next Conclave in Altoona on August 21-22, 1915. The following princesses were present at this first meeting of the Parlor: Mrs. Anna Wertz, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. H. B. Strook, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. W. S. Reed, Mrs. Daniel Furry, Mrs. Rush Litzinger, Mrs. H. C. Robinson, Mrs. S. H. Sell, Mrs. Harry Gilchrist, Miss Mary Reed, Mrs. Frank L. The revolving wheel of time has brought about the season when "the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder is in the shock." First heavy frost of the season Wednesday night, September 9.

July 10th Mrs. John Ellis fell and bruised, as she thought, her left arm. Last week the "bruise" was so painful that Mr. Ellis requested Dr. Ayres to call and treat his wife. The Doctor found that ligaments near the left shoulder had been sprained, and Mrs. Ellis is now carrying her "bruised" arm in a sling. "A stitch in time often saves nine."

Miss Mary Kauffman, daughter of Isaac Kauffman, proprietor of the Bedford House, was confined to her room several days this week by injuries received in an accident last Saturday afternoon. The horse attached to the Adams Express wagon became frightened and dashed down Pitt Street to the next corner, where he overturned a buggy in which Miss Kauffman and Miss Gertrude McVicker were riding. Miss Kauffman was thrown to the ground and sustained a number of bruises.

W. H. Fissell of Newark, N. J., was in Bedford Wednesday. The W. H. Fissell Company of New York City has been awarded the contract for erecting the new government postoffice building on Penn Square, Bedford, the contract price being $52,800. Mr. Fissell came to Bedford to arrange for the preliminary work. He told a Gazette reporter that his company would send a man to Bedford to take charge of the work, and that they would begin on the job this month.

Last Friday afternoon at Northside Park the Bedford and Everett baseball teams met for the fourth game in a series of five. This was one of the best games witnessed here this season, the score being 1 to 0 in Bedford's favor. Each team has now won two games. Baylor, for Bedford, pitched one of the best games of his career and let the Everett team down with two hits. Howard, for Everett, also pitched a good game. Both teams put up a fine fielding game. Each first baseman retired runners at the home plate by good throws.

Something New

Mr. Samuel H. Koontz, the popular music man, has bought the Job Shoemaker building on Pitt Street, Bedford, from Attorney A. L. Little, executor. Prof. Koontz will use the second story for his music studio, and a better place for a conservatory of music could not be found in Bedford County. The large hall will be used for a display room for Prof. Koontz' fine line of pianos. The large room on the first floor will be changed and made into an auditorium, with a beautiful Colonial front. George M. Mann has rented the auditorium room, where high-grade picture plays and musical entertainments will be given. There will be music, mystery, song, story and pictures. Mr. Mann is not a novice in the entertainment field. He has given pictorial entertainments and illustrated lectures in California, the middle west and several eastern states. He has entertained and pleased large audiences in San Francisco, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., and many other cities and towns between the Atlantic and the Pacific, and he believes he can please the people of Bedford County and get a share of their patronage at the Colonial Theater. How do you like the name? The Gazette congratulates Prof. Koontz on his enterprise and hopes that his bank account will swell to an enormous size.

Cheap Paint

There are 1000 "cheap" paints and a dozen really cheap ones.

That double word "cheap" is the cause of wasting more money than good paint costs, two or three times over.

Cheap paint is good paint; there is no other; no other is cheap.

The two words sound alike but their meanings are opposite. "Cheap" costs double. Cheap is Devoe.

The lever can be fastened on top of the motor and used as a hand washer. This is often desirable in winter when surface drainage would result in ice.

In case of moving where there is no water pressure, it can be made into a hand power machine and, of course, hand power Queens can easily be changed to power washers.

It is your ever-ready "wash-woman." No back talk. It does all the hard work, and pays for itself several times over each year and lasts many years.

Like the hand power Queen, it washes much faster than others, by reason of the thorough and positive agitation, and peculiar construction. This means saving of much time. It is a waste of money to try to do without it. Many users say they would not do without the MOTOR alone for $25.00.

McCORMICK'S LABOR RECORD

Attacks by Penrose Machine
Fail to Shake Workers' Faith.

ALWAYS FAIR TO LABOR

Secretary Wilson and Labor Organizations Disprove Falsehoods Circulated by His Opponents.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 8.

Desperate efforts on the part of the Penrose organization to overcome the strength of Vance C. McCormick, Democratic candidate for governor, with the workers of the state have signally failed, according to reports received at Democratic headquarters during the past week. The facts of his long record of service to the workers of the state, both through his influence in politics and as newspaper publisher and employer, have become too well-known to be overcome by falsehoods and slanders.

This is especially true, since it is apparent that the effort to discredit him emanates from the Penrose machine, whose record is one of consistent treachery. Labor has been betrayed every time it believed in the platform promises of that party, and that betrayal is known to the men who have suffered by it.

The logical man for the office of governor, from the standpoint of labor, is Mr. Vance C. McCormick, the Democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania. He is a loved and trusted employer, a defender of labor, a friend of the workingman, and as such has won the respect and approbation of labor leaders and labor organizations. This has not been given to him indirectly or ambiguously and for political effect, but directly and voluntarily, as a tribute to a man who places square dealing above politics, and honesty of act and thought above public office.

Mr. McCormick is the owner of the Harrisburg Patriot, which employs in its mechanical department only union men. His fortunate workers get more than the union scale of wages. Moreover, he is a kind and considerate employer. The Patriot is the paper to which labor always looks for sympathy in its struggles for betterment and for fair treatment in the publication of all news concerning its relations with capital. All this reflects the personality of Mr. McCormick himself. For years the Patriot has fought the battles of the workers, especially during the sessions of the legislature, and has advocated the enactment of labor legislation. During the last session it was foremost in exposing the treachery by which the child labor bills and the workmen's compensation bill were emasculated or destroyed in the senate. In consequence the Patriot and Mr. McCormick are disliked by the gangsters, but labor loves them for the enemies they have made.

The hatred of the gangsters was manifested in an attack upon Mr. McCormick the day after the Patriot exposed the chicanery of the Penrose senators who refused to report out of committee Representative Leiler's mine dockage bill, which would have ended unfair methods used in paying miners. It was mendaciously said of him that he was an enemy of labor and opposed to a fair wage for workers. Senator Beideman was the accuser, as he was responsible for the committee's failure to report the bill, and the accusation took the shape of a vituperative attack on Mr. McCormick. Charges which the Penrose senator made then have been repeated since, but they have been disproved by indignant labor itself.

The story aroused the indignation of Federal Secretary of Labor, William B. Wilson. (By the way, you have ever heard of a labor leader in the cabinet of a Republican executive?) Secretary Wilson said of it:

"If it were true that Mr. McCormick believed that $1.20 per day was enough for a laborer, of course I could not give him my support as a candidate for governor. I have taken the pains to look into this and a number of other allegations emanating from the same source, and have satisfied myself that they are without foundation in fact, and have been circulated solely for political purposes."

It was said by the opposition that the Patriot was a non-union shop, and the statement was denied by the typographical union without solicitation by Mr. McCormick or anybody representing him. Mr. William Corless, of Scranton, who is district organizer of the International Typographical Union, made this public statement:

"The Harrisburg Patriot, owned by Mr. McCormick, is an absolutely union shop, conducted along the strictest lines of unionism and in full compliance with a verbal contract between Mr. McCormick and the officers of the International Typographical Union recognizes a verbal contract, just as it does a written one. Every requirement of the I. T. U. is complied with to the very letter in the offices of the Harrisburg Patriot. The union scale is paid, and in a number of instances there is a higher wage paid than is called for by the scale. Also every man in the shop is a union man, none but union men being employed. I can state positively from my own connection with conferences between representatives of the union that he is absolutely fair to union labor and that the verbal contract with him is just as faithfully complied with as any written contract of any newspaper publishing company in my district."

The Scranton union adopted resolutions declaring that the charge was "absolutely false and without the slightest foundation," and that it was "unfair both to union labor and the employers of union labor" and protested against it.

At the convention of the Eastern District Typographical Union, attended by representatives of the sixteen counties comprising the district, these resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, statements to the effect that the Harrisburg Patriot is a non-union establishment have been circulated throughout the state; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Eastern Pennsylvania Typographical Union, in convention assembled, hereby declares these statements to be absolutely false and without the slightest foundation, as the Harrisburg Patriot employs none but members of the Harrisburg Typographical Union, No. 14, in its composing room; and be it further

"Resolved, That the Eastern Pennsylvania District Typographical Union hereby protests against these statements as being unfair to both union labor and the employers of union labor."

Thus Secretary Wilson, other labor leaders and the unions nailed two campaign lies.

In addition to this, and in response to inquiries by the State Federation of Labor, Mr. McCormick placed himself squarely in line with all the just demands of the Federation, and his candidacy was declared to be satisfactory to it.

If anything more were needed to make Mr. McCormick's labor record clear to the voters it may be said in conclusion that he assisted in drawing up the workmen's compensation bill which the Penrose men killed in the last session of the legislature, and that he has been Vice President of the Pennsylvania Child Labor Association, which is endeavoring, against Penrose opposition, to end child labor slavery in Pennsylvania.

MCCORMICK'S LABOR RECORD IN A NUTSHELL

He is an employer.
His is a union shop.
He pays more than the union scale.

He helped to draft the workmen's compensation bill.
He supported woman and child labor bills.

He gives labor a square deal in all its struggles.

He exposed trickery by which labor bills were emasculated and defeated.

For years he was Vice President of the Pennsylvania Child Labor Association.

His record as an employer is approved by labor organizations.

His position is satisfactory to the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The Priceless Spell

I do not know what I would give
If I could have again
The ecstasy of little child
Back in the golden "Then."
The wilding heartbeat and that throb
Of old excitement, well,
I do not know what I would give,
Again to feel that spell!

To feel the spell of Christmas come
As once it came to me;
That vision of the ball and drum,
That tinselled pageantry;
That wild, impatient waiting till
The glad day rolled around,
With dancing feet no word could still
And the whole world holy ground.

I do not know what I would give
If I could lie at night
And summon from the vasty space
Those visions of delight;
And there across the little room
With clatter sweet and wild
Tell all the little thoughts that bloom
Forever in the child.

WHAT BIGELOWISM MEANS AND THE MAN WHO WILL END IT

Monroe County Farmers at Work on the State Highways Neglected by Bigelow

The above photographs were taken on the Monroe County Good Roads Day, June 15th. On this day the citizens of Monroe County, who had waited in vain for the Bigelow Highway Department to put the State Highways in passable condition, took the matter into their own hands and spent a day repairing their own roads. The highways in all parts of the County, as the result of neglect for non-labor by the State Department, were in intolerable condition, but the farmers themselves in a day succeeded in doing more than Bigelow had accomplished in a year. It cost the County dearly, however, and it cost the farmers even more, in time, money and effort. This is one price they paid for Bigelowism.

In the oval above is a portrait of Vance C. McCormick, Democratic Candidate for Governor, who has pledged himself to a thorough reorganization of the Highway Department, and who, as mayor of Harrisburg, proved that roads could be built and kept in good condition without any great burdens upon the taxpayers. Mr. McCormick has been active in the good roads movement for years but he believes in the largest measure of home rule possible, in efficiency, economy and honesty and in providing an effective plan of maintaining the State Highways after they are built.

GATE OPENED FOR SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE

A Republican Paper Says the Wise Policy of the Administration Towards the Pan American Republics Made Them Our Friends.

Washington, D. C., September 7.—The administration's efforts to open up South American trade to the commerce of the United States are being appreciated by the American public. It is generally realized that this country now has an opportunity "to get in on the ground floor" in South America. It is admitted, too, that the opportunity exists only because the President has so conducted international affairs that the United States is at peace; and that the Latin-American countries are well disposed to enter into closer business relations as the result of the President's considerate and magnanimous handling of the Mexican problem. "While European artisans, mechanics and laborers are drilling and marching and fighting and killing one another, somebody must supply the peoples of South and Central America with the manufactured products which they need and use in their everyday life," said the Ohio State Journal (Rep.) August 12. "Of course that somebody is the United States. The republics to the South buy annually from England, Germany, France and other Old World countries manufactured articles which cost more than $1,000,000,000. Last year Argentina alone bought $250,000,000 worth of such goods from the nations now involved in war. These buyers can not get what they need from Europe now and naturally turn to the United States.

"There is a wonderful opportunity right now to establish with the Pan-American republics trade relations which will be permanent. President Wilson's wise policy toward these nations, as illustrated by his virtual recognition of three of them as world powers in the Mexican peace negotiations, has put them in a friendly frame of mind toward us. Sentimentally, they probably would rather deal with us than with anybody else. If our manufacturers are alive to the situation and resist the temptation to charge war prices for their goods, Europe never again will get much of their business, and within a very few years the business will be double or triple what it is now."

The passage by the House last week of the General Dam Bill, by a vote of 190 to 47, means that one of the more important of the administration's tasks is well accomplished; so well accomplished that even the Progressives, who once claimed to be the only true conservationists, have nothing but praise for the joint conduct of two Democratic Cabinet officers and two Democratic committee chairmen.—New York Evening Post (Ind. Rep.).

Thirty-nine Republican and Bull Moose Congressmen voted for this Democratic solution of the water power problem.

OLD HICKORY CHIPS

President Wilson continues to keep his anxious gaze on the national steam gauge.

Many Europeans who ridiculed Wilson's handling of the Mexican problem are beginning to wish they lived in Mexico.

The battles in the moving pictures are no less renowned than war.

The maxim of the Germans is nothing ventured, nothing have.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home; there is no place like home.

The first and second reservists among the English poets have all taken a whack at Germany; but wait until the bally verse writers get a chance.

The sun never sets on a heart that carries sunshine to the hearts of others.

Also the price of peace has gone up.

Have a heart Europe, have a heart. War is one game in which everybody concerned loses.

We don't know whether it will be a hat, a cigar or a mowing machine but something is reasonably sure to be named after Liege.

Cheer up! September is here with re-enforcements.

Everybody is still asking: "Who started this fool war, anyway?"

Meantime, politics strangles and fumes at being thrown into the discard.

When exposed to the sun of ambition the world gets freckled with war.

No person of humane disposition will give the Red Cross the double cross.

Belgium is bitterly opposed to being the international cemetery of Europe.

Now the sound of the heavy firing has awakened flocks of old ghosts at Waterloo.

We are indeed in a new era when Wall Street asks the White House "what it may do?"

Prof. William H. Taft also has nothing to say, but contrary to his custom, he is not saying it.

Those European monarchs are all kinsmen and this is the biggest family row in history.

While trying to keep out of the fracas Uncle Sam feels a trifle bit as if he were walking on eggs.

War like politics, makes strange bed fellows. For instance, Russia is now bunking with Japan.

Though not seeking military glory, Belgium has achieved about 90 per cent. of all that the war has furnished thus far.

Members of the Chicago commission who went abroad to study terminals are coming back experts in army mobilization.

Soon the citizens must withdraw their eyes from the war maps to study election ballots if they hope to defeat the enemy at home.

Japanese statesmen should consider Japan as being used as a cat's paw to rake any nation's chestnuts out of the fire.

Somewhere in the vast silent belt one Victoriano Huerta is wondering and worrying about the money he deposited in European banks.

No, there will be no embalmed beef scandal across the water.

The smoothness with which our financial system is being adjusted to meet emergencies by the execution of a complete, well-thought-out plan, and the difficulties presented at this moment by the absence of a merchant marine, both show the wisdom of foresight and prompt action on public questions.

When the war came it found us prepared on the financial side. We had grappled with that problem and settled it. We had an emergency currency law that served to bridge over the gap sufficiently, and we had a well-thought-out and modern banking and currency system capable of being put into operation in a comparatively brief time.

The result has been satisfactory in the extreme. The financial waters in this country have been, comparatively speaking, untroubled. With the organization of the complete system, begun yesterday by the organization of the Federal Reserve Board, we shall have a plan in operation that will protect us during the conflict and for a long time afterward.—Chicago Herald (Ind.), August 16.

DRINK AND CRUELTY.

Medical science tells us that an imperfect nervous system is often the cause of the tendency to cruelty sometimes seen in young children—that if a child shows a disposition to torture animals or abuse other children it does not follow that the boy or girl is a degenerate; it may be due to the presence of toxin in the blood. The well-known tendency to cruelty on the part of those addicted to the excessive use of intoxicants, bears out this statement. Men, who in sober moments are tender husbands and fathers, become transformed by strong drink into savages and fiends. Even the more "temperate" use of liquor tends to dull the sensibilities and becloud the finer instincts. The toxin in the blood of a moderate drinker, while not always causing a noticeable degeneracy in the man himself, is transmitted to his offspring, and in the third or fourth generation, if not before, is manifested in the "cruel tendencies" of children that excite our wonder.

RUINING A VESTED INTEREST.

Collier's Weekly, which with commendable frequency gives the liquor traffic an editorial stab, recently answered as follows the saloonist's claim that to destroy the saloon is to destroy a vested interest:

"Every generation raises its crop of fine old crusted Tories—some of them in the humbler walks of life. And at all times they oppose light—even as they once tried to resist lighting what Longfellow called the 'street lamps of the ocean.' The instance we have in mind is noted in Emerson's Journal. Sixty years ago the philosopher visited Nauset, on Cape Cod. 'Collins, the keeper, told us he found resistance on Cape Cod to the project of building a lighthouse on this coast, as it would injure the wrecking business.' Did you ever stop to think that our lighthouses have utterly ruined what used to be a vested interest?"

DISAPPROVAL OF LIQUOR.

The American Sheet and Tin Plate company of Vandergrift, Pa., which is a subsidiary concern of the United States Steel corporation, has placed the stamp of disapproval on liquor and drinking by notifying all employees that they must withdraw from fraternal organizations and clubs which maintain sideboards, or cease to work in the company's plants. They are also prohibited from endorsing liquor license applications.

This order, it is said, not only affects the 6,000 employees at the Leechburg, Hyde Park, New Kensington and Vandergrift plants, but all the plants of the company throughout the country.

AGAINST ALCOHOL.

Dr C. W. Saleeby, the distinguished English physician and writer on eugenics, concludes his little book on "The Methods of Race Generation" with this remarkable sentence:

"In the light of truth and the verdict of science it cannot be questioned that he who at this date is for alcohol is against civilization, and whatever ideals of justice and freedom and goodness we would transmit to the future. To all and sundry I say: Would you befriend men, women and children? Go protect parenthood from alcohol; and fear not that kind of laughter which is as the crackling of thorns under a pot."

STICKS TO TEMPERANCE.

A German spoke at a temperance meeting as follows: "I shall tell you how it was. I put my hand on my head; there was one big pain. Then I put my hand on my body and there was another. Then I put my hand in my pocket and there was nothing. Now there is no more pain in my head. De pains in my body are all gone away. I put my hand in my pocket, and there is twenty dollars. So I stay mit de temperance."

FAVORS HIS OWN RULE.

Mr. George Perkins of the New York Life Insurance company gave a dinner to the directors of the great company. When a menu card was handed him for his sanction he crossed out all wines. To the protest of the proprietor that such a thing would be preposterous and could not be done, Mr. Perkins replied: "We discriminate against the use of these in our policy holders, it is but fair we should abide by our own rule."

TOTAL ABSTINENCE DEMANDED.

Eighty-eight per cent. of the manufacturers of the United States demand total abstinence of their workmen. About one million railroad men in this country have to be total abstainers from beer and all other intoxicating liquors.

BONUS FOR ABSTAINERS.

The Philadelphia Quartz company has offered a ten per cent. bonus with the wages of men who sign an agreement to abstain from drinking altogether. Nearly all the 300 men employed have signed the agreement.

GOLDEN STREETS.

If we could turn all the liquor money into good roads, we could almost walk on golden streets to every American home, and find each home aglow with joy.—Noah D. Cooper Nashville, Tenn.

THE SIEGE OF PENROSE

Tonight, in Bethlehem, begins the Siege of Senator Penrose. For fifty days, he will be attacked with the deadliest of all weapons, his own record.

Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer will begin the Siege with a comprehensive and specific indictment of Senator Penrose's public acts. (He will say nothing about his private character.)

Night after night, the separate counts of the indictment will be amplified and supported.

This indictment is not campaign oratory, but the most definite and detailed charges, attested in every particular by public documents, with chapter and verse given.

Look for them day by day in the newspapers.

This Book of Fate, which Senator Penrose has been writing by his own deeds for more than twenty years past, is the only platform on which he can stand before the people.

It is a consistent document, and its meaning is clear. Study it; verify it; talk about it. The successful Siege of Penrose means political deliverance for Pennsylvania.

The Democratic Party in Pennsylvania is waging a campaign of information against Penrose and Penrosism. We desire opportunity to supply voters with first-hand facts. We welcome postcard requests for data from alert and open-minded citizens. Address the DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE, Harrisburg, Pa.

In Johnstown Next Week

Johnstown's Trade Expo and Fall Fashion Festival, the first of its kind in the annals of the city, will be inaugurated next week in a blaze of color and beauty which will set at defiance any gloom of the weather. Show windows, stores and streets will be more beautifully decorated than ever before and the entire downtown district will have an atmosphere of fashion and elegance. Every corner of the earth that can be reached at present has been ransacked by the Johnstown merchants and they are inviting the people to come and be their guests for five days.

Merchants, jobbers and manufacturers have all united and hundreds of dollars is being spent to entertain the people. Beautiful women, living models secured from New York City and Chicago, will display the women's styles. The latest modes in men's clothing will be exhibited. The merchants whose business is in the more prosaic lines, such as furniture, hardware, household equipment, etc., have had special displays of the latest things in their lines arranged. It is to be an exposition of the newest things to wear, use and eat.

The jobbers will hold a banquet for all their retail guests at noon Thursday. Each of the big stores is vying with the other for unique attractions and souvenirs. Orchestra and band concerts, pantomimes, flowers and novelty gifts of all kinds are in readiness for the crowds. Rest-rooms, guides, refreshments, and other features are offered. The business men of Johnstown want to show their appreciation of the friendship of the people of Cambria and surrounding counties and have united in this way to do it. Everyone has the same chance to enjoy all the fun. Something doing every minute. The Expo lasts from Tuesday morning until Saturday night.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The Administration's war risk bill, a measure vitally important to quick and profitable transportation of American grain to Europe, after being unanimously passed by the Senate, was delayed in the House by the objection of James R. Mann of Chicago, Republican leader. A piece of typical Republican obstructive statesmanship which we take great pleasure in submitting to the notice of American farmers!

CONSERVATION VS. DESTRUCTION

Little Talks on Health and Hygiene by Samuel G. Dixon, M. D.

The involvement of the larger portion of the civilized world in warfare, the frightful destruction of human life due to modern arms and the vastness of the operations has focused the attention of our entire Nation upon the events occurring across the seas and has cast a gloom over the minds of all thinking men.

Within a generation phenomenal strides have been made toward the conservation of mankind throughout the world. We have begun to learn how to preserve the weak and protect the strong from disease. Already the efforts along these lines have resulted in enormous economic savings and have made possible gigantic monuments to the constructive ability of mankind such as the Panama Canal.

When the great nations of the world are sending the flower of their manhood to destruction it is almost natural to feel that efforts to conserve life are ephemeral. However, when the work of destruction has ceased the work of rebuilding must begin. The economic struggle for existence will be keener than ever before in the history of the world and the conservation of the health of the peoples struggling to recuperate will be a still greater factor in their efforts to regain their physical and economic equilibrium.

As a nation we are in a unique and important position; to maintain which we will need sound bodies and sane minds.

Let us continue with redoubled vigor the work of improving individual and public health.

GAINS 40 POUNDS IN 40 DAYS

Remarkable Results of the New Tissue Builder Tonaline Tablets in Many Cases of Run-Down Men and Women.

Prove It Yourself by Buying a Box of Tonaline Tablets Now.

"By George, I never saw anything like the effects of that new treatment, Tonaline Tablets, for building up of weight and lost nerve force. It acted more like a miracle than a medicine," said a well-known gentleman yesterday in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his condition. "I began to think there was nothing on earth that could make me fat. I tried tonics, digestives, heavy eating, diets, milk, beer and almost everything else you could think of, but without result."

Any man or woman who is thin can recover normal weight by the best new treatment, Tonaline Tablets. "I have been thin for years and began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by use of Tonaline Tabs, so I decided to try it myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just forty pounds during the last forty days, and never felt stronger or more 'nervy' in my life."

Tonaline Tabs are a powerful inducer to nutrition, increases cell-growth, food, increases the number of blood-corpuscles and as a necessary result builds up muscles, and solid healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a beauty maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener. Tonaline Tabs cost $1 for a 50-days' treatment, at druggists, or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.—Adv. Aug. 28, 4t.
